

Robert J. McDonough

President, Carrier

Robert McDonough is President of Carrier, a leading global provider of innovative HVAC, refrigeration, fire, security and building automation technologies. Previously, he served as President, UTC Climate, Controls & Security, leading United Technologies' building technologies and field services businesses globally.

Robert has more than 30 years of experience in general management, sales and marketing. In his 11 years at United Technologies, he has served as Chief Operating Officer, Americas, UTC Building & Industrial Systems and UTC Climate, Controls & Security; President, UTC Climate, Controls & Security, Americas; President, Residential & Light Commercial Systems, Carrier; and President, Distribution and Aftermarket, Residential & Light Commercial Systems, Carrier.

Before joining UTC, he spent 16 years with Lennox International, where he was President and Chief Operating Officer, Worldwide Heating & Cooling as well as Executive Vice President, Lennox International. Previously, he was President, Worldwide Refrigeration and International Operations.